

Cornerstone House Music is a dynamic worship collective from Cornerstone Church in Bowie, Maryland, under the leadership of Pastor Mark Lehmann. United by a shared passion for exalting the name of Jesus, they create music that is deeply presence-driven, Spirit-led, and rooted in authentic worship. Many of their songs emerges from significant stories of their church community. Their mission is to write songs that serve the local church, inspire faith, and create an atmosphere where people encounter the presence of Jesus. They are led by singer-songwriter Daniela Barroso, whose heart for worship, and leadership have shaped the collective's vision. Their new album - Jesus Now & Forever - will be released in May 2026.
